Dear Parents and Carers

All of us here at King Ina hope that you and your families are in good health and are managing to stay safe.

We hope that everything has gone well with the children's home learning this week. Do feel free to contact the school should you have any questions about the tasks and activities set, or any other general queries you might have - we are more than happy to help.

As yet we do not have a timescale for when schools will reopen and are waiting for the government to announce their plans. Once we do have an indication of when this will be, there will be a period of planning before we open, to ensure that children and staff can return to school safely. We are very aware that reopening schools will cause anxiety for everyone but we wish to assure you that we will do everything we can to make this as safe and smooth as possible. We will keep you updated with progress towards reopening in due course.

From everyone here, we hope that you all enjoy the bank holiday weekend and the VE Day celebrations, in whatever form these might take! Enjoy this time with your family and have a well deserved break from all your hard work with the home learning tasks.

Best wishes

Mrs S Svenson
Headteacher
