Monday 17th January 2022

Dear Parents and Carers

I am sure that you will have heard about the latest change to the government isolation period for those who test positive for Covid-19. Please see below for details of the change:

From Monday 17 January, people who are self-isolating with COVID-19 will have the option to reduce their isolation period after 5 full days if they test negative with a lateral flow device (LFD) test on both day 5 and day 6 and they do not have a temperature. For example, if they test negative on the morning of day 5 and the morning of day 6, they can return to their education or childcare setting immediately on day 6.

The first test must be taken no earlier than day 5 of the self-isolation period, and the second must be taken the following day. All test results should be reported to NHS Test and Trace.

If the result of either of their tests is positive, they should continue to self-isolate until they get negative results from two LFD tests on consecutive days or until they have completed 10 full days of self-isolation, whichever is earliest.

Anyone who is unable to take LFD tests or anyone who continues to have a temperature will need to complete the full 10 day period of self-isolation.

Further information on self-isolation for those with COVID-19 is available.

We also thought it would be helpful to remind you of the rules if you have come into contact with someone who tests positive for Covid-19:

If you live with or have been in contact with someone with COVID-19, you will not need to self-isolate if any of the following apply:

- You're fully vaccinated – this means 14 days have passed since your final dose of an approved COVID-19 vaccine
- You're under 18 years old
- You're taking part or have taken part in an approved COVID-19 vaccine trial
- You're not able to get vaccinated for medical reasons

Even if you do not have symptoms, you are strongly advised to:

- Do daily rapid lateral flow tests (1 a day for 7 days), if you're fully vaccinated, to protect yourself and other from COVID-19 - find out more about daily testing on GOV.UK

Please do not hesitate to contact the school office should you have any queries about the above.

Best wishes

Mrs S Svenson
